Haiti Update September 2, 2024

Hello my friends,

These pictures show a part of the people that received the wheelchairs that we purchased. About 15 people have received them for free. I also share food with the people in Colladere who are really needy. The situation of some people here is very complicated. So, I see it was more than necessary to support them in anyway we can .

Be blessed,

Fr. Rene Blot

St. Mary's Important News and Upcoming Events

Catholic Conversations Sunday's 9:45am-10:45am in Parish Hall

Sept 29- Mary-Ark of the New Covenant -Dave Fisher

You hear it announced with the messages at the end of 8:30 Mass, 'Catholic Conversations will be held in the Parish Hall'. A new white board has been placed in the portico inviting people to come to it. Come to what? What is it? People walk past thinking, "Ah, it's just a coffee klatch, I have other things to do with my Sunday."

Many people think, (or have experienced), the gathering after Mass is for cliques to bunch up at a table, drink coffee, and talk about things that only relate to them. If you are not in a clique, you are a fifth wheel. Feeling awkward, you leave, and never go back. No one wants to feel embarrassed, so they don't go.

Here, at St. Mary's, that is not what Catholic Conversations. Each Sunday, there is a new topic presented. It is an opportunity to learn more about the Catholic life. Who we are as Christians, and specifically, Catholics. What do we believe, and more importantly, why we believe it. Topics are Scriptural, Catholic, timely, educational, and informational. There are discussions, questions, answers, and fellowship. No cliques at their own table chattering, no fifth wheels, no one left out, everyone is there to learn something new. Come once, and you will want to come every Sunday, because each session is different. The Mass is the best hour you will spend all week, taking in Catholic Conversations may well be the best second hour of your week.

25 Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

22 de Septiembre del 2024

"El que quiera ser el primero, que sea el servidor de todos" Marcos 9:35

Los discípulos de Jesús discutían sobre quién era el mejor. En lugar de abofetearlos por su orgullo egoísta, Jesús ve lo que pueden llegar a ser y los llama a una actitud diferente. Para ser verdaderamente felices, deben dejar de lado el orgullo y la arrogancia; deben aprender que servir a los demás, esa es la única manera de experimentar el amor y la alegría.
